It is a pleasure to have you here today. I am sure you will find the program most interesting and profitable. We have a number of speakers who are well known in their fields, and we have a number of topics that are of great importance to the industry.

The first speaker will be Mr. John Doe, who will be speaking on the topic of "The Future of the Industry". He is a well known expert in this field, and his presentation will be most interesting.

After the first presentation, we will have a break. We will then have a presentation by Mr. Jane Smith, who will be speaking on the topic of "The Role of the Industry in the Future".

We will then have a presentation by Mr. Robert Brown, who will be speaking on the topic of "The Impact of the Industry on the Environment".

We will then have a presentation by Mr. David Green, who will be speaking on the topic of "The Role of the Industry in the Future". We will then have a presentation by Mr. Susan White, who will be speaking on the topic of "The Impact of the Industry on the Environment". We will then have a presentation by Mr. Michael Black, who will be speaking on the topic of "The Role of the Industry in the Future".

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE SUNSHINE ORDINANCE

Government's duty is to serve the public, reaching its decisions in full view of the public. Commissions, boards, councils and other agencies of the City and County exist to conduct the people's business. This ordinance assures that deliberations are conducted before the people and that City operations are open to the people's review.

For more information on your rights under the Sunshine Ordinance (Chapter 67 of the San Francisco Administrative Code) or to report a violation of the ordinance, contact the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force at 554-6075.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1801. It is a very important document, as it is the first time that the President has addressed the Congress since the establishment of the office.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 1, 1801. It contains information about the state of the Navy and the ships that are in service.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 1, 1801. It contains information about the state of the Treasury and the funds that are available.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War, dated January 1, 1801. It contains information about the state of the War and the troops that are in service.

5. The fifth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 1, 1801. It contains information about the state of the Interior and the lands that are available.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE SUNSHINE ORDINANCE

Government's duty is to serve the public, reaching its decisions in full view of the public. Commissions, boards, councils and other agencies of the City and County exist to conduct the people's business. This ordinance assures that deliberations are conducted before the people and that City operations are open to the people's review.

For more information on your rights under the Sunshine Ordinance (Chapter 67 of the San Francisco Administrative Code) or to report a violation of the ordinance, contact the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force at 554-4851.

SAN FRANCISCO LOBBYIST ORDINANCE

Individuals and entities that influence or attempt to influence local legislative or administrative action may be required by the San Francisco Lobbyist Ordinance (SF Admin Code 16.520-16.534) to register and report lobbying activity. For more information about the Lobbyist Ordinance, please contact the Ethics Commission at 1390 Market Street #701, San Francisco, CA 94102, telephone (415) 554-9510, fax (415) 703-0121 and web site <http://www.ci.sf.ca.us/ethics/>.
